

Why become a therapy dog team?

- The potential to impact someone's life in a very unique and powerful way
- The privilege to support and comfort someone in what might be their darkest—or happiest—hours
- Spend quality time with your dog—while helping others
- Serving our fellow community members
- Gaining perspective and appreciation for life (and its challenges)